CALL FOR MEXICAN GOVERNMENT SCHOLARSHIPS FOR FOREIGNERS
2010

Documents which must accompany Application Form A

- Scholarship Application. Use Application form A of this Call (*). Application forms from previous years are no longer valid.
- Proposal from the government of the candidate's country in the last part of this Application, or in a separate letter.
- Letter of acceptance from the receiving Mexican academic institution, or proof that the acceptance is being processed. This must be signed by the Postgraduate Coordinator and/or Director of the Institute, School, or Center that will receive the candidate, on letterhead paper and with handwritten signature. Communications received by e-mail shall be considered only as a contact and will therefore not be taken into account when deciding on the definitive awarding of the scholarship.
- A typewritten letter stating the reasons for taking studies or conducting a research in Mexico.
- Curriculum Vitae(*), with copies of corroborating documents related to the academic activity of interest.
- Copy of the certificate (diploma) of a Bachelor's and/or postgraduate degree (*), as the case may be.
- Copy of study transcripts of a Bachelor's and/or postgraduate degree, as the case may be. Proof of GPA obtained must be attached.
- For doctoral research, attach academic proof certifying that the candidate is enrolled in a Doctorate program (*).
- Applications for postdoctoral visits must be accompanied by documentary proof of a Doctorate degree.
- Copy of Birth Certificate(*).
- Recent medical health certificate which must state whether or not the candidate is suffering from infectious-contagious diseases(). Candidates selected must submit a further medical health certificate(), issued by a public institution 15 days prior to the candidate's traveling to Mexico. It is also necessary to know about illnesses that are not covered by the medical insurance included in the scholarship. This information is included in the scholarship award contract.
- Proof of proficiency in Spanish(*). In the event this is not the candidate's native language it is suggested that he/she takes the examination of the Centro de Enseñanza para Extranjeros (CEPE) Taxco de la Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México (UNAM), [Center for Foreign Students of the National Autonomous University of Mexico] Tel. (762) 622 3410, fax (762) 622 0124. E-mail: comtaxco@servidor.unam.mx
- Eight recent photographs, not scanned or digitally printed, 3 cm. high by 3 cm. wide: 1 must be affixed to the scholarship application form. The eight photographs submitted must state the grantee's name and nationality on the back.

IMPORTANT NOTES:

- The SRE will not be awarded for preparatory courses, distance-learning courses (virtual), direct doctorates (which include both master's and doctorate). The maximum period for a Doctorate scholarship is 3 years. Those applying exclusively for the development of a research project do not have to consider January as the starting date and December as the ending date.
- Scholarship applicants must submit their documentation in the above-mentioned order, in a folder or dossier with dividers and clips so that no documents are lost. Incomplete dossiers will not be taken into account.
- (*) Documents marked with an asterisk must be accompanied by a simple translation into Spanish, in the event that they are not originally in said language.
- In the event of being awarded a scholarship/grant, applicants must contact the receiving Mexican academic institution to ascertain whether they need to have their studies revalidated. This is to allow them enough time to have their academic documents notarized or annotated (apostil) before traveling to Mexico.
